The BAKER FAMILY

John Baker of Norwich, England, was in Ipswich, 1634, with his wife, Elizabeth. He was born in 1592 and she in 1600. John was one of the original grantees of Topsfield, receiving 150 acres in 1661. This bounded on Baker's Pond, later Hood's, which he deeded later to his son, Thomas (2).

John held to his land in Ipswich, and I think, settled there finally. A paper in the Reg. of Deeds, dated 1676, Norwich, England, mentions John's brother Benjamin and his cousin Richard. In 1680, Nath'l Greenwood, attorney in Boston of Thos. Wetherell of Norwich, gave a receipt for money paid by John Baker, Sr., "late of Ipswich, now of Topsfield."

The children of John (1) and his wife, Elizabeth, were :-

Thomas (2), b. Sept. 13, 1636; a freeman 1669; he married, Mar. 26, 1672, Winthrop married her grandmother for a third wife - a Read, not Winthrop stock... Thomas died in Topsfield, March 18, 1718. He held various important offices, including Rep. to General Court, 1686; 1689; 1696; and was a military officer. Priscilla died Jan. 2, 1734 at 85. Her mother, Rebecca Symonds, died 1695, and left a petticoat to daughter Priscilla.

Both men, Joseph (6) and Nath(6) had the same great uncle, Nath'l (3) Frye.

When Joseph(6) Frye left Andover to go to Canada to smuggle horses, after the Revolution and near the War of 1812, he owed his brother-in-law, Symonds(6) Baker, a note. He-Joseph, was caught smuggling in Canada and was hanged there. My father's cousin, David Russell brought the news home.

Before he left, he lived on the Cooper place at the Pond and Susan^{na} stayed there awhile with the children. Her grandson, John^{na} son of her daughter Susanne(7), who married Hinchcliffe, got the idea that his grandfather was murdered at the instigation of the Bakers who wanted the money he had lent them, -when the truth was, that he never had paid the note he borrowed and they knew nothing of his death until Russell brought the word.

Dr. Symonds Baker purchased the estate after her death and it is still held by the great grandson, George Baker. In 1781, Joseph Ballard and his wife, Hannah, sold to Symonds Baker, Holt's Great Meadow on the road to Salem.(Near Prospect Hill somewhere).

According to the 1797 record, the northern boundary of his farm was Bixby Abbott's land, and gates were on the line. He paid a tax, 1798, of $3. signed by Wm. Farnum, Collector of Revenue.

1:110...Dec.27,1715...Capt. Thomas(2) Baker applied to Salem Court for damages, claiming that his meadows were flooded over from the dam of the old mill owned by Isaac Peabody. The claim was not allowed. 1726 old Isaac Peabody died and left the mill to his son, Joseph, so Capt. Thomas again tried to get damages and was awarded 18 shillings a year. For 70 years the Baker family collected this fee, until 1801. Then Joseph and John Batchelder owned the Baker farm and they brought suit against Jacob Peabody, then mill owner, for flooding their meadows and they were awarded $18 damages and were to have $3 per year. This they collected until 1870.

"On Sept. 12, 1645, there was granted to William Ballard, 7 1/2 acres of land and 5 rods in the great field beyond the new line, called by name of the Divided Land,- to him and his heirs forever."

As the Lynn Ballard was dead, this surely was our ANDOVER man, and he was in Newbury before he came here.

At some date, yet unknown, William Ballard and his wife, Grace, were established on the Billerica Road. In 1661 he swapped with W. Chandler, and took a homestead, now the residence of Homer Foster. He died, July 10, 1689; Grace died April 27, 1694. In deposition of age, given in vol.7, page 148, he is 45 in 1662, so born about 1617. Possibly he was the young Ballard who tried to get here in 1633 but was sent back with others before they left the English Channel. He came first, I conclude, to Boston, and was free in 1638, at 21, when he was a member of the Artillery Co.

Vol. 2:page 247, Essex Records, shows William here in Andover and exchanging land with William Chandler, and sums of money to balance. He seems to take a house, barn, 4 acres, a hop-yard, bounds N and E by the land of Nathan Parker, W by land of John Lovejoy and Andrew Foster, (probably near present Library site) - the highway on the South ; all buildings mounds, fences belonging thereto. He gives a 5 acre house lot in Andover having Andrew Allen, N and W, the land of Wm. Chandler on the E; highway or common on the South, of which Wm. Chandler is now in possession.

Articles concluded between Joseph, John and William, William (1) died without a will leaving the mother to be provided for. They agree to care for her and they decide what the sisters shall have:-

" Our honored mother, Grace, widow, to have liberty of dwelling in that house which was our father's, in which room she pleases, so long as she continueth his widow. Her bed and bedding and all other necessary house implements she needs, to be her own proper estate, for use during life- to be with clothes and what else she hath at her disposal as she hath cause at her death, amongst her children; 3 sons to be at equal charge to provide her two good cows, summer and winter- also lay her in every year, 16 weight good pork, 6 bush. Indian corn, 4 of Rye, 3 of Wheat, cord wood- each to give 20 sh. in money- 9 lbs. sheeps' wool, 12 lbs. flax from swingle."

The brothers were to divide the land and be of equal charge in care of mother and paying off the sisters.

Joseph, evidently the eldest, is to have 20 acres of Upland, "where his house is"; 50 acres of the Great Division; 14 acres by the Shawshin; 2 acres near James Frye; 6 1/2 acres of last division of meadow; 5 acres in Beaver Dam meadow; 1 1/2 acre in Redding meadow- (this was part of land allotted to old William when Lynn owned Reading) and which young John sold his share to Reading, later); 1/2 acre of pound meadow.

William (2) was to have 27 acres " where his house is "; 40 acres in Great Division tract in Shawshin fields; (this was the town bog, now our business center) 2 acres near James Frye (over on North Parish plain) 1/2 acre meadow on Shawshin.

Blunt on his marriage with sister Elizabeth (2), which lies south of the land before named and is bounded out; John also has a division of land called the Island (more town bog); 1/2 the pound meadow, to which John is to have a way through Wm. Blunt's land; and to have half the Pond and Meadow with brothers, William and Joseph.

the sisters were to have 10 Lbs. apiece, -in addition to what they had already received- paid in something merchantable.

Widow Grace desires John Abbott to be her overseer and take care of her sons' yearly payments.

(William Blunt and Grace can only make their Xmark- but the sons-in-law, Butterfield, Henry Holt, and Jos. Wm. and John all write their names.

All the relatives appear and own this voluntary on their part- Sept. 28, 1691. Came to Haverhill to declare the same for the Court's confirmation, before Nath'l Saltonstall, assistant.

The children of William and Grace, were:-

(I conclude the Abbott homestead was nearer Red Spring at first and changed to the site of Wm. Ballard's and the house was built about 1725, which is now standing. This was all the grant of Wm. Chandler once. The Foster farm, and across the river and down to Red Spring and Holts' Woods and Indian Ridge. Hartwell Abbott's heirs hold most of it.) WITCHCRAFT in Andover. See page 154- History of Andover, by Abiel Abbot.

Elizabeth Phelps, wife of Joseph Ballard, fell ill, and on the advice of some of the townsfolk, he was persuaded to send to Salem Village where, it was said, there were girls who could tell the names of those persons who were able to afflict others. Thinking he could discover the cause of Elizabeth's sickness, he asked two of the hysterical girls to attend a meeting held at North Meeting House, in North Parish.

As these girls were supposed to have been afflicted by witches, it was believed that they would be able to discover the person or persons afflicting Goody Ballard, since the presence or touch of a "witch" would send them into spasms.

Various women of the parish were summoned to the Meeting-house and were blindfolded. Mr. Barnard, pastor, read held a prayer service, & the goodies laid hands on the so-called afflicted-girl visitors. The fits followed. All the women were seized and thrown into prison. The examination of Goody, Ann Foster, in July 1692, accused of practising witchcraft on Dame Elizabeth Ballard, was the beginning of the tragedies in Andover.

Elizabeth Ballard died July 27, 1692.

Ruth died and was buried with her mother, Elizabeth died just a week later. Notice is given on our Town Record: "John Ballard, ye husband of Rebecca and father of ye above daughters, dyed Dec. 18, 1715, about 62.-So the poor constable, who 23 years before had marched Martha Carrier(accused of witchcraft) off to her death, went with his band of four, leaving daughter Rebecca and her two brothers to sit alone.

No wonder they did not care to stay here. Sherbiah held the home lands of old William (1) Ballard, so whoever he sold to, had them. Jonathan moved to Billerica property left him by his father(" all lands and buildings and meadows in Billerica, N. England; a pair of pistols and holsters; my carbines 1/3 of personals and what he needs of this year's crop for subsistence", was his share of John(2)'s estate)- brother Sherebiah was heir to "real estate and common rights in Andover; 2 parts of personals, tackle, goods, loom and tackle".

The first year of the war was a year of great suffering and hardship for the people of the North. The war had just begun, and the North was struggling to raise an army to fight the rebellion. The South, on the other hand, was already in a state of rebellion, and was fighting the war for its independence.

The war was a long and bloody struggle, and it took four years to bring it to a conclusion. The North eventually won the war, and the South was forced to accept the results of the war. The war was a great tragedy, and it cost the lives of millions of people.

Timothy (6) Ballard was very small and active. He broke his hip a few years before he died, and went insane near the end. Mrs. Gould says that he was born in the Manning house- that is wrong, it was his father, Tim(5) who was born there. His uncle, Joseph (5) got the place by inheritance. Tim(6) built a home back of the Manning place, which, all agree, was built by old Deacon Hezekiah, who m. Lydia Chandler, and it was originally a part of the old Chandler grant.

Tim (5) built later near the Mill in the Vale, and this Tim(6) inherited. It stood on the west side of the river, and he owned also a great deal of land on the east side- all of which went to son Tim.

Tim owned 1,000 cows, according to Mrs. Gould, and he used to let them out to people, to be returned to him when the calf was 3 years old.

She also tells that he was very prompt about getting to the mill on time in the morning, and often ate his bread and milk on the way, leaving the bowl and spoon on the stone wall, to be picked up and brought back to his house. He often forgot them and where he had left them. When the walls were being torn down to build up the village, Tim's spoons were found in them. When Tim's horses were cold and wet, he used to bring them into the kitchen to get warm.

Davied Mears of the Vale told Poor that Tim's father owned the Vale before he died. He said too, that Tim's wife, Mary Foster, used to tend bar, when they kept a tavern in B'vale for a while.

When the estate was sold, widow Mary got $2.200 for the homestead, from Herman P. Chandler. Mrs. Mann bought it in 1843 and held it until 1847. Then she sold to Marland, and what they didn't want, the B.&M. R.R. got.

98:774- 1751-rec'd 1752.

Tim Ballard to Tim Ballard, Jr., the uppermost mill on the Shawshin- a grist mill- south side river, called the Plain Mill- all privileges except such as belong to widow or "ARES" of Wm. Chandler, dec.

Notice that I wrote of Stephen Ballard's death:-

" Stephen Ballard, son of Joshua (6) Ballard and Phebe Abbott, was born in Andover, Sept. 9, 1818, in the old house--last occupied by Capt. Allen-- the famous ancient Ballard Tavern of the Revolution.

He was educated in our schools here-- probably at Phillips Academy, he trained early in John Marland's Mills at Ballardvale, in the making of delains, the first made in this country. Later, with his brothers Gayton and Joshua, he removed to Horkset, N.H., where they changed the cotton mills to delain mills. At Southbridge, Mass., the brothers later established factories for cotton and woolen goods-- the Hamilton Mills,-- controlled by them.

Stephen became a manufacturer also of leather belts and rubber belting and of late years invested successfully in cabinet works, picture frames and other pine wood work. He was especially versatile, being an all round mechanic and business manager.

He married, Dec. 24, 1840. Sarah Ballard Russell, a distant cousin, daughter of Abiel Russell and Sarah Abbott, but she died in Oct. 2, 1851, childless. He married second, Abby Dodge, Nov. 18, 1852. She died June 8, 1895.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study and the objectives of the research. It also outlines the methodology used in the study and the results obtained. The second part of the paper discusses the implications of the study and the conclusions drawn from the research. It also outlines the limitations of the study and the areas for further research.

The study was conducted in a laboratory setting and involved the use of a series of tests to measure the performance of the system. The results of the tests were compared to the theoretical predictions and the conclusions drawn from the research. The study found that the system performed well under the conditions tested and that the theoretical predictions were generally accurate.

The implications of the study are that the system can be used in a variety of applications and that the theoretical predictions can be used to guide the design of the system. The conclusions drawn from the research are that the system is a viable option for the application and that the theoretical predictions are a useful tool for the design of the system.

The limitations of the study are that the results were obtained from a laboratory setting and that the conditions tested may not be representative of the real world. The areas for further research are the performance of the system in the real world and the development of a more comprehensive model of the system.

First Barker Deed:-

On the deed no location of house or lot is given nor does it state where the stock was. Adam Otterly is a witness. It says-"Hay and stuff at ~~Pond~~ farm where I now live- in New Meadows." Date 1643.

On back of deed, a year later, 1644 there is an illegible statement in which the words HAGGETTS POND can be plainly seen, and " and do affirm"--. Apparently John Hughes is one of the witnesses of the 1643 deed, acknowledges it and adds some statement in regard to land and rights. If its meaning could be made clear, I think it would indicate Andover, and not Ipswich, as the place where the property conveyed lay,- while the hay and produce taken from said farm had been conveyed and stored in New Meadows by a former resident- a deserted farm very likely-.

("Hewer" was the name on the Index but it is always signed Hughes.)

Richard Barker's heirs have always held lots on the West side of the town near Haggets Pond, where the first settlers,- Hagget, for one- seem to have appeared. The Indians made a raid here early and killed someone- Luke Heard, I think, who was here with Haggett.

1647:- The Town of Newbury was presented, for lack of a bridge on Falls River on the way between Newbury and Andover, Oct. 15, 1647. Richard Barker and John Osgood, both of Andover, were witnesses.

1658:- Richard Barker signs a petition for John Osgood to be sergeant. Page 127; vol. 4.

June 7, 1661; 6:98:- John Barker makes a deposition. Gives age as between 16 and 17- so born about 1648.

Richard Barker is a witness with Thomas Abbott and Geo. Abbott, Sr. of Andover. They tracked hay stolen from Bradstreet's meadow to Benj. Wilkins' house . (See Wilkins' note for rest of tale.)

A note on Hannah Hutchinson told of her going to the house of Thos. Chandler to wash clothes, and telling lies about Nathan Parker's boy and about Goodwife Barker. (No date.) Mary Osgood, w. of Stephen, testifies.

THE BARKER FAMILY

Richard(1) Barker and wife Joanna, and family, lived at the corner of the Great Road to Haverhill, on which the trolly line ran, and Clark Street. The first house stood at the corner where Capt. Ben Barker of the third generation, a bachelor, lived, and gave the estate to his nephews, the sons of his sisters who had married Carletons from Haverhill.

We have just established this site from deeds of the Carletons, and now the corner lot is occupied by an apple orchard owned by Greenwood, and an old lilac tree stands near where the last house must have been on the Clark street side of the lot.

Near this estate lay that of Edmund Faulkner, who, with Barker, was the first to come to Andover and commanded this sightly location at the head of Lake Cochickewick.

Capt. John (2) Barker, d. 1721, of small pox. (The wife's name is illegible. He must have m. a 2nd., as the 1st d. 1703.) The wife is to have one room and cellar room- 3 apple trees she chooses; in the orchard, while a widow; his son John is to get her wood, wheat, corn, etc. (maybe the will was written before the 1st w. died and meant her) .. He acknowledges his deeds to Richard and John, made previously... John gets the homestead, all fenced and unfenced land "lying between the road and Great Pond and land between the road from my house to Andover town and the County Road from Andover to Ipswich- "also between the Boxford line and some brook - maybe Boxford-. He gives the land already deeded to Richard, and more, both " above and below the falls in Merrimac River joining my father's land that was old Mr. Frye's and old Mr. Wm. Ballard's to a pine stump by Nathan Barker's." (Nathan Barker was evidently a Methuen man and probably a son of the old lady of the will of 1682). He gives to Richard also his house and barn- also the Ayer's farm and some property he owned with Robert Swan- also the Corwin farm- " my part with Bardwell and my brother Ben Barker in the Naverhill border... To daughter Mary, wife of Wm. Barker, -more land added to her dowry and more coming from the Common.. To daughter, Deborah, wife of Abiel Stevens, land; to Mehitabel, wife of Rich. The following letter, written by a friend to Miss Charlotte Helen Abbott is added to give the location of the Barker homesteads- and to show the friendly interest of her contemporaries, in C.H.A.

" Andover, Mass.
4 Febuary, 1908.

My dear Miss Abbott:-

I find the location of the old Nathan Barker place is as I placed it but I do not feel it safe to send you on so long a tramp in cold weather- some two miles from the cars on the 'Pond Road'.
Montgomery/ I am told that John Barker who married Kate Nason lives in the home on the side of the Pond. Nasons owned a Barker farm north of Great Pond- the Edmond Barker place, and sold it to Kunhardt. It is very easy for you to find the Montgomery farm as it is on the car route.

John Barker was born in the Brick House-the old Jacob and John Barker farm. The Bradford cars, after leaving the Pond Road, pass first, the French place- a large house on the right that sets up from the street then the River District school on your left- then the Montgomery farm- now John Barker's, on the right- a large white house with a new barn.

This would be very easy for a winter trip as the car stops at the door. From there, there are two paths across, for the Nathan Barker location- and past the brick house, which I think, has been rebuilt.

The other way, easier to find, is to go down Pond Road past the ice-houses, up the hill past the Kunhardt place and then take the left hand road that turns around more to the left- nearly a mile- and you are there.

I suggest going first to John Barker's for items of helpful interest as you will not find people around the old homestead.

The car conductor can tell you where the house is, passing it so often.

Yours most truly,
Susan M.J. Sears."

also- from Miss Sears:-

" I find I have the inscriptions of 17 stones in the Kittredge Cemetery, of early Barkers. There are some Benjamins and Johns among them... Many of the early Barkers were associated with West Boxford and when they attended church, went there. John's family line- (Stephen and Jacob) are Unitarians. There are some early graves in the oldest cemetery in West Boxford of the Barker tribe, but I do not remember where Richard was buried, if I ever knew. It seems as though I had seen a large black slab for Richard.

As ever-

June 30, 1913.

S.M. Sears."
